

“Shape Your Destiny” seminar by Darren Pereira and assisted by DJ, DQ.

Often in life, it is not events that shape our destiny, but the decisions we make about those events - each day, for the rest of our lives, we can choose to make decisions that will shape our destiny.

This was the realisation for many Year 12 Students at The MacRobertson Girls' High School in August 2005.

During his inspirational seminar, Darren Pereira inspired students (and teachers) to believe in themselves and develop a personalised set of goals that would help them 'shape their destiny' in a very practical way.

Darren Pereira is clearly motivated by a desire to see all young people reach their full potential. Using contemporary music and video presentation, his presentations are highly energised and relevant to where today's young people are at.

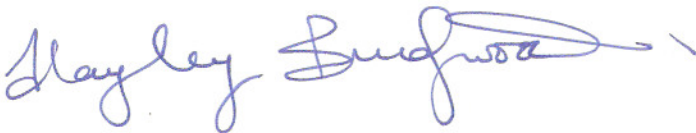

He encourages all students to realise the possibilities and take action in small and steady steps. For many students, the seminar inspired renewed confidence to set aside other people's ambitions for them and pursue goals they once thought were impossible to achieve.

The MacRobertson Girls' High School would like to thank Darren Pereira and DJ, DQ for making a difference to our students.

“We got to jump up and down, puff and puff and scream “Yes!” on our way to success!” (Hong)

“It was fun, but even more than fun, you were funny and had us all rolling in the aisles with laughter. Sometimes the motivation was not because of the actual content of motivational stuff but with the energy and vitality you put into the presentation mixed with humour.” (Ammu)

Kind regards,

Hayley Bridgwood
Year 12 Coordinator
